

At Elon Stock Investment, we prioritize the privacy of our users.

Our policy details the collection, usage, and safeguarding of your personal information on our website.

- Information We Collect:
 - We gather personal details from users to deliver our services.
 - This may include your name, email, phone number, and other information you share.
 - Additionally, we collect non-personal data like IP addresses, browser types, and usage statistics.

How We Utilize Your Information:

We utilize your personal details to offer our services, address your queries, and keep you informed about our products and services. Your information may also be used to enhance our website and services, as well as to meet legal requirements.

- Personal information might be shared with third-party service providers who support us in delivering our services.
- Additionally, we may disclose your information to law enforcement agencies, regulators, or other authorized third parties as mandated by law.

Cookies are used for tracking purposes.

We utilize cookies to enhance your website experience. These are tiny text files saved on your device during your site visit, allowing us to personalize your experience, monitor your activity, and assess website performance.

Security:

- We implement reasonable measures to safeguard your personal data from unauthorized access, usage, or disclosure.
- Industry-standard security protocols like firewalls and encryption are employed to secure your information.

Changes to This Policy:

We retain the right to modify this policy whenever necessary. Any updates will be communicated by publishing the revised policy on our website.
